Corina and Star-CaT have been super helpful in shaping our business development strategy through their thoughtful masterclasses on Middle Eastern culture, covering the latest advancements and projects in the region. Additionally, they provide beautifully crafted card templates, perfect for sharing with my clients on special occasions. The cultural awareness this has brought to our communications has deepened our Middle Eastern relationships. Working with her is an absolute pleasure.

From the moment we started collaborating, I was impressed by their deep knowledge of the Gulf business landscape, cultural nuances, and industry trends.

Not only did Corina and Star-CaT help me secure a new client, but they also provided invaluable advice and strategic insights that have significantly enhanced my understanding on how to best work with them.

I wholeheartedly recommend Corina to anyone seeking to understand the dos and don'ts + tricks in the Gulf region. Their exceptional skills, dedication, and unwavering support make them an invaluable asset.
